Jewish Museum Milwaukee After Hours premieres March 13

The premiere of JMM (Jewish Museum Milwaukee) After Hours launches Thursday, March 13, 7 p.m. at JMM, 1360 N. Prospect Ave. The current exhibit is Andy Warhol: 10 Portraits of Jews of the Twentieth Century. It will include screen printing workshops led by the UWM Peck School of the Arts-Student Print Club that will introduce Warhol's techniques. Materials will be provided, but feel free to bring T-shirts, tote bags or anything participants would like to screen print.

Cost is $8 and free to JMM members. Drinks and light refreshments (dietary laws observed) will be served. For further information or to register by March 11, visit JewishMuseumMilwaukee.org or call 414-390-5730.

Jewish Museum Milwaukee is collaborating on this event with the Harry and Rose Samson Family JCC - Young Jewish Adults of Milwaukee (YJAM) and the Milwaukee Jewish Federation Young Leadership Division (YLD) to provide networking opportunities for young professionals with every new exhibit at the Jewish Museum Milwaukee.

About the Jewish Museum Milwaukee

The Jewish Museum Milwaukee is dedicated to preserving and presenting the history of the Jewish people in southeastern Wisconsin and celebrating the continuum of Jewish heritage and culture. The history of American Jews is rooted in thousands of years of searching for freedom and equality. We are committed to sharing this story and the life lessons it brings with it, so that we may enhance the public's awareness and appreciation of Jewish life and culture.

About the Milwaukee Jewish Federation

For more than one distributed nearly $19 million last year to Jewish and non-Jewish organizations locally and around the world.
