Conversation Topic Title:

Milwaukee Multicultural Jewish Families

Summary of ideas discussed

An ongoing group that represents the ethnic/cultural diversity of Milwaukee families, whether by birth, adoption or affinity. It includes families, singles, parents, grandparents and allies. Activities that provide connection & support both within the group and to the entire Jewish community. Assists Jewish communal agencies in creating inclusivity for these individuals/families, to become the village around these families.

Actions

Provide opportunities to break down the isolation between these groups and the established Jewish community, while strengthening the assets of these individuals and families. Providing opportunities to celebrate the worldwide and local diversity of the Jewish Community.
