I am a midwife, a gardener, a world traveler and a parent at Jewish Beginnings Lubavitch Preschool, which is funded by the Milwaukee Jewish Federation. It’s a place where compassion, curiosity and exploration are modeled and encouraged by a warm, nurturing staff. My daughter is always excited about what she’s learning, and it’s a great way to introduce her to Jewish culture.

– Karen Stern