

I am a library lover, an arts enthusiast, a champion of things I believe in, and the founding president of Jewish Museum Milwaukee, a program of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation, where we cultivate awareness of Jews and our history. The Stitching History From the Holocaust exhibit helped educate the Jewish and non-Jewish communities about the Holocaust and what it means to be a Jew. We collaborated with the Milwaukee Repertory Theater, the Milwaukee Art Museum, the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and the Haggerty Museum of Art, building a network between the Jewish community and the rest of the city. It was a remarkable opportunity for the entire community to benefit from the work of Jewish Museum Milwaukee.
