

The First Hanukkah

Written by Joan Philosophos

Illustrated by Cindy Cooper

Produced in the CJL Creativity Center ©1989

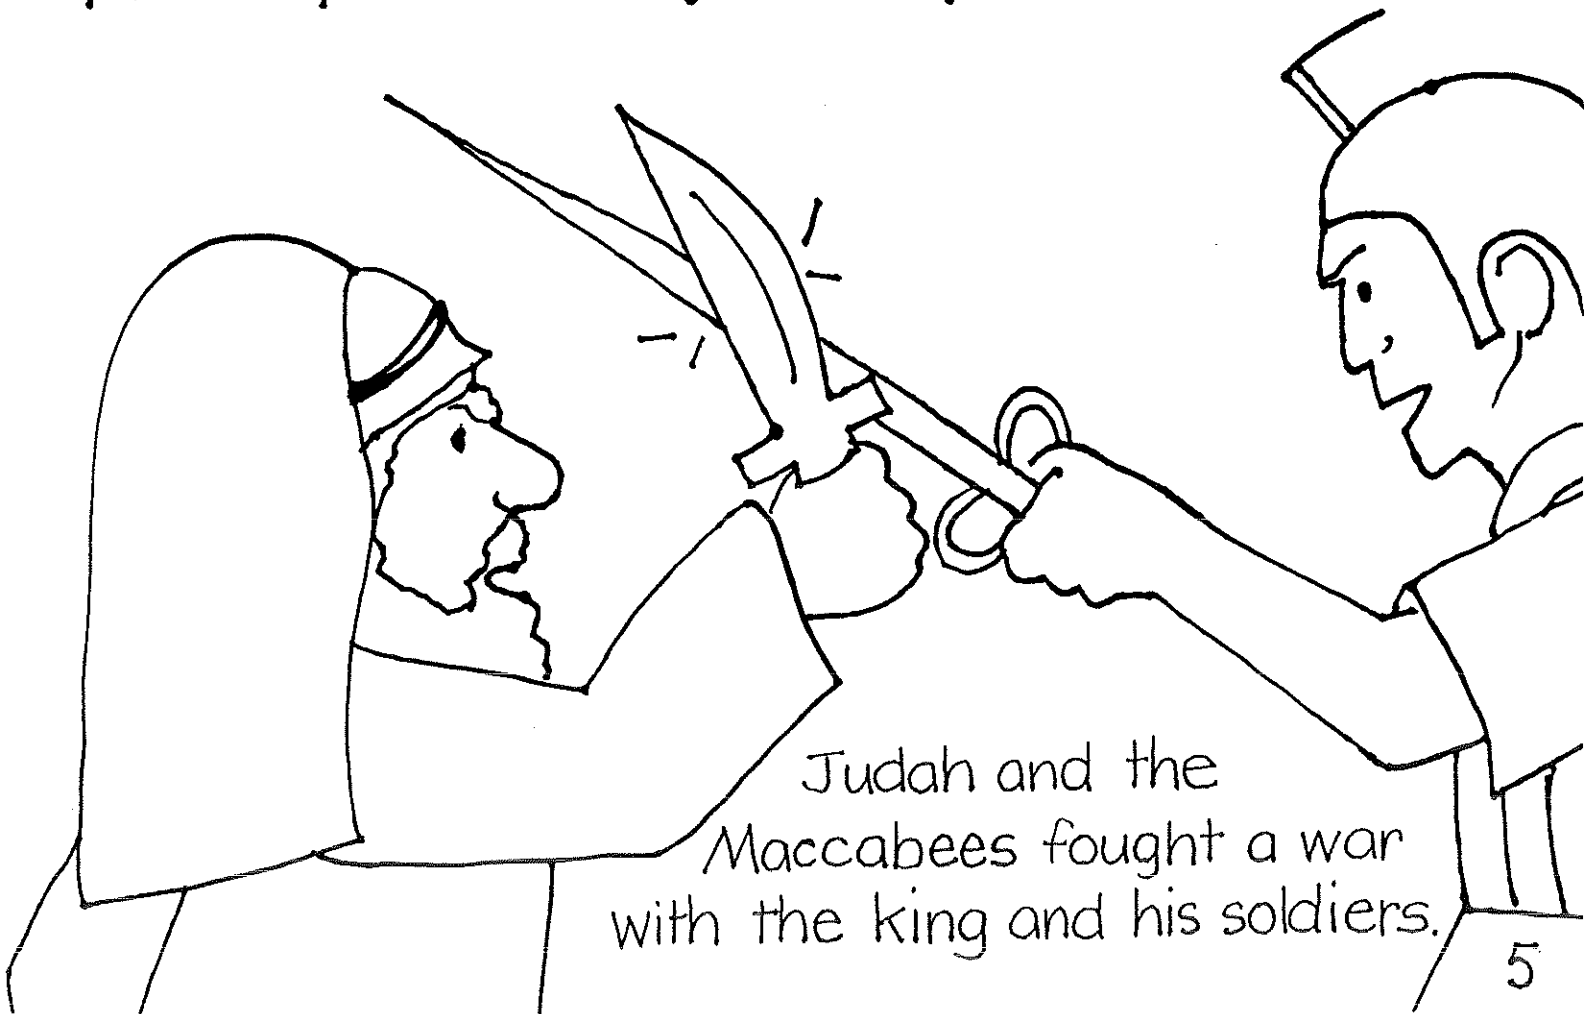

A long time ago in Israel there was a man named Mattathias. He had five sons.

The king did not like the Jews. He made the Jews bow down to idols.

The king put idols in the temple.

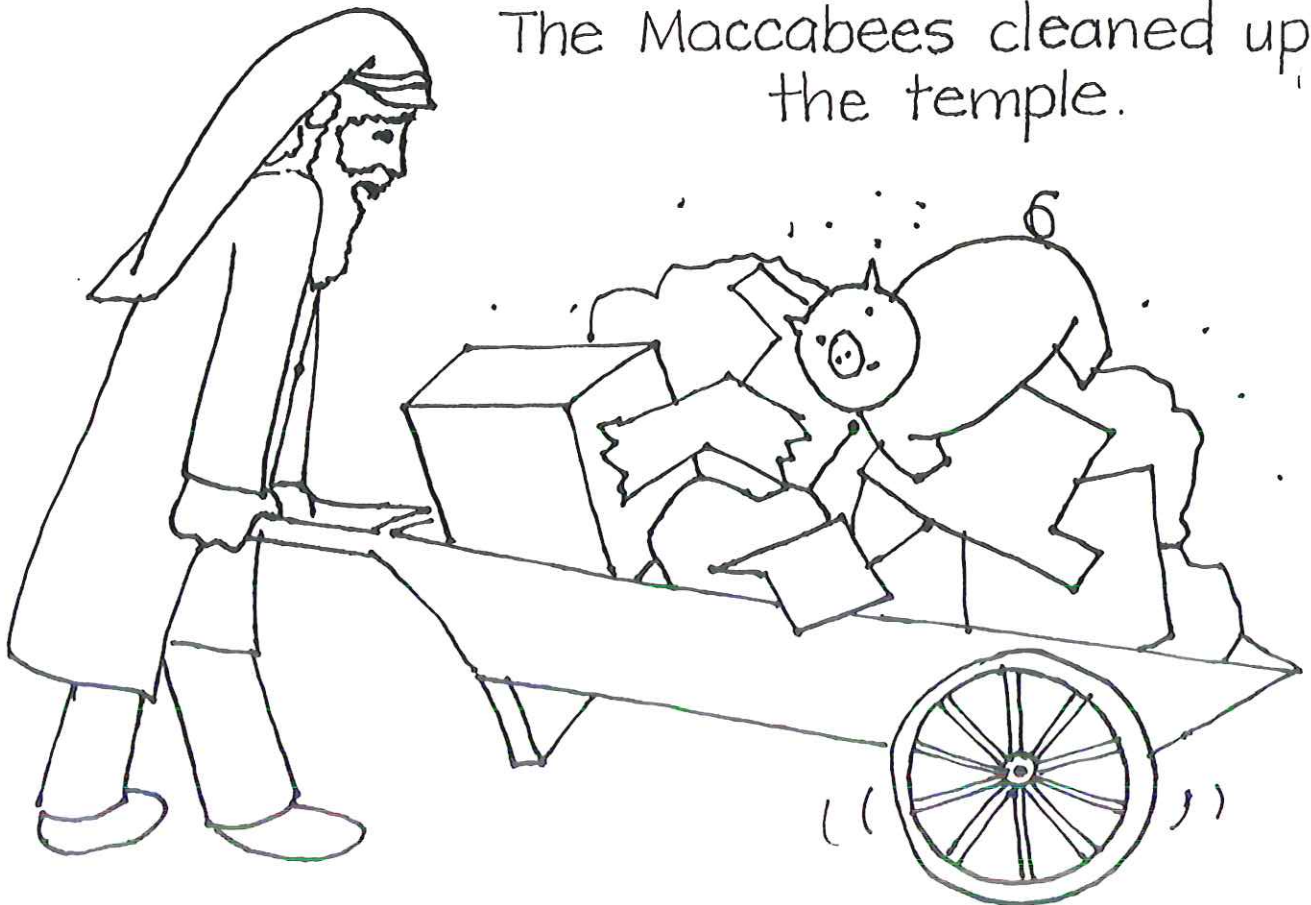

The Jews won the war.

6

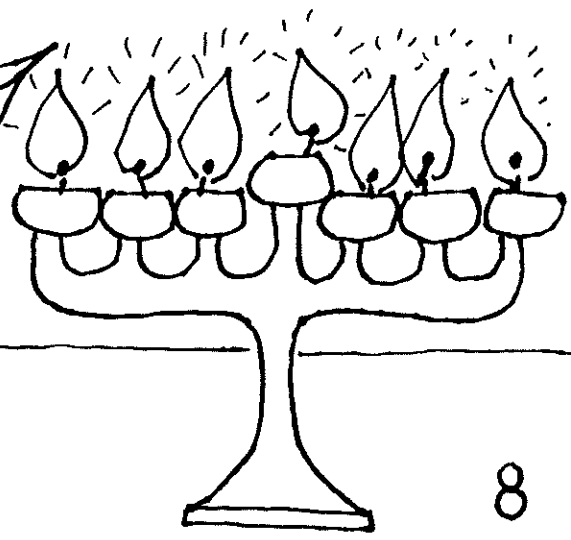

The Maccabees cleaned up the temple.

7

They lit the menorah,
but there was only
oil for one day.

8

The oil lasted
for eight days.
It was a miracle!

9

That was our first Hanukkah!

