Welcome from the Publisher

Each generation of Jews has the blessing and the responsibility to care for our seniors. For more than 100 years, the Milwaukee Jewish Federation has invested in organizations and programs to do just that.

To examine how we can do even more, we brought together three of these organizations: the Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center, Jewish Family Services and the Jewish Home and Care Center.

We quickly identified an important need – helping seniors and their families connect with the many Jewish resources that can enrich their lives. And that’s how the Seniors’ Guide to Jewish Milwaukee came to be.

We invite you to explore the guide and to take full advantage of the rich and varied opportunities Jewish Milwaukee has to offer.

Mission of MJF

Through the development of community-wide financial support, planning and allocations, the mission of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation is to ensure the continuity of the Jewish people, to enhance the quality of Jewish life and to build a strong unified Jewish community in Milwaukee, in Israel and throughout the world. In fulfilling its mission, the Federation is committed to the principles of Klal Yisrael (the collective unity of the Jewish people), tzedakah (the obligation to care for one another) and tikkun olam (improving the society in which we live).

The Milwaukee Jewish Federation is on a mission to help secure a vibrant Jewish community for today and tomorrow. We develop financial resources and provide services that create a healthy Jewish community as a whole.

We stand up for the rights and security of our people, teach the lessons of the Holocaust so the world will never forget, offer a forum for communication to foster community, strengthen our connection with Israel, connect new Milwaukeeans to our community, grow strong leaders to guide us into the future, provide scholarships so our children can attend Jewish camps and schools, cultivate philanthropists to build our community’s financial resources, and manage community properties for the enjoyment and benefit of all. And that’s just the start.

Each one of us has a responsibility to ensure our own long-term Jewish continuity by making Judaism integral to our beings and our identity; we cannot delegate the insurance of our Jewish future exclusively to rabbis, synagogues and Jewish institutions. However, each of us in our own way can make the difference by growing to the best of our own ability — beginning today. Together, we are building an inspired Milwaukee Jewish community, bringing Judaism into our hearts, homes and lives.

Congregation Sinai is a welcoming community of 400 households. Our intimate size enables the entire congregation to worship together at the high holy days and allows clergy and congregants to get to know one another personally.

We offer education for K4-2nd grade and 3rd-9th grade Hebrew and Jewish studies. 10th grade students participate in the Affirmation program.

Education programs include community work, summer outdoor worship services and celebrations of festivals, simchas and holy days.

What will your Jewish legacy be?

By Caren Goldberg

Imagine if you could give a gift that would last forever. An after-lifetime legacy gift enables you to perpetuate the Jewish traditions and values most important to you by supporting the Jewish programs and institutions that you cherish. Legacy gifts also make a permanent statement of your values to your family and your community.

Imagine what your gift could do. By supporting the Jewish organizations you care about, you can educate our children, care for the elderly, feed the hungry, strengthen Jewish identity, preserve our culture and heritage, support our synagogues, strengthen Israel and make a difference in the lives of future generations.

Creating a legacy gift is easy, and you can choose from many options. You can make a gift of any size to benefit one or more organizations that are important to you. Give now or in the future, or declare your intent to remember Jewish causes in your will or estate plan. Options for funding a legacy gift include:

- Simple bequest in a will or estate plan
- IRA or pension plan
- Life insurance policy
- Charitable gift annuity
- Charitable remainder trust
- Outright gift using appreciated assets or cash

To discuss your Jewish legacy, please call Caren Goldberg, executive director of the Jewish Community Foundation of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation, at 414-390-5737. You can also contact her by email at CarenG@MilwaukeeJewish.org.

What will your Jewish legacy be?

“We have always been active in the Jewish community. Creating a Jewish legacy is a wonderful way for us to come forth and say that we will help future generations benefit from the programs and services that have meant so much to us and to our children.”
