BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL NETWORK

The Business & Professional Network (BPN) unites Jewish professionals to lead with purpose, grow careers, and give back. Rooted in Jewish values, BPN fosters authentic connections, develops leaders, and promotes philanthropy that benefits Jewish life and Milwaukee—offering exclusive member benefits to donors who make a qualifying gift to MJF's Annual Campaign. Core programming includes BPN Ignite, Cardozo (Legal), and Maimonides (Healthcare) Society events, curated networking with corporate partners, and leadership opportunities through volunteer roles and event co-chairing.

For more information about BPN, contact Ryan Woloshin at RyanW@MilwaukeeJewish.org.

COMMUNITY CAMPAIGN

The Community Campaign is centered around our largest group of donors, who represent more than 60% of all donors to our annual campaign. From young professionals and families beginning their philanthropic journeys to donors who have been giving for 50 years or more, participating in the Community Campaign is an excellent way for community members to express their Jewish values and show their support for the Jewish community in Milwaukee, Israel, and around the world.

For more information about Community Campaign, contact Mel Rosenfeld at MelissaR@MilwaukeeJewish.org.

NEXTGEN MKE

NextGen MKE is comprised of individuals ages 22-45 in all stages of life. Focusing on engagement, leadership, and philanthropy, NextGen ensures that the Milwaukee Jewish community goes from strength to strength across the generations. NextGen engages the community's young leaders by developing the skills needed to guide the Milwaukee Jewish community now and into the future, and by providing them with social, philanthropic, networking, and learning opportunities.
